

Peace through social justice and decent work

Pierre Martinot-Lagarde sj

Special advisor for socio-religious affairs

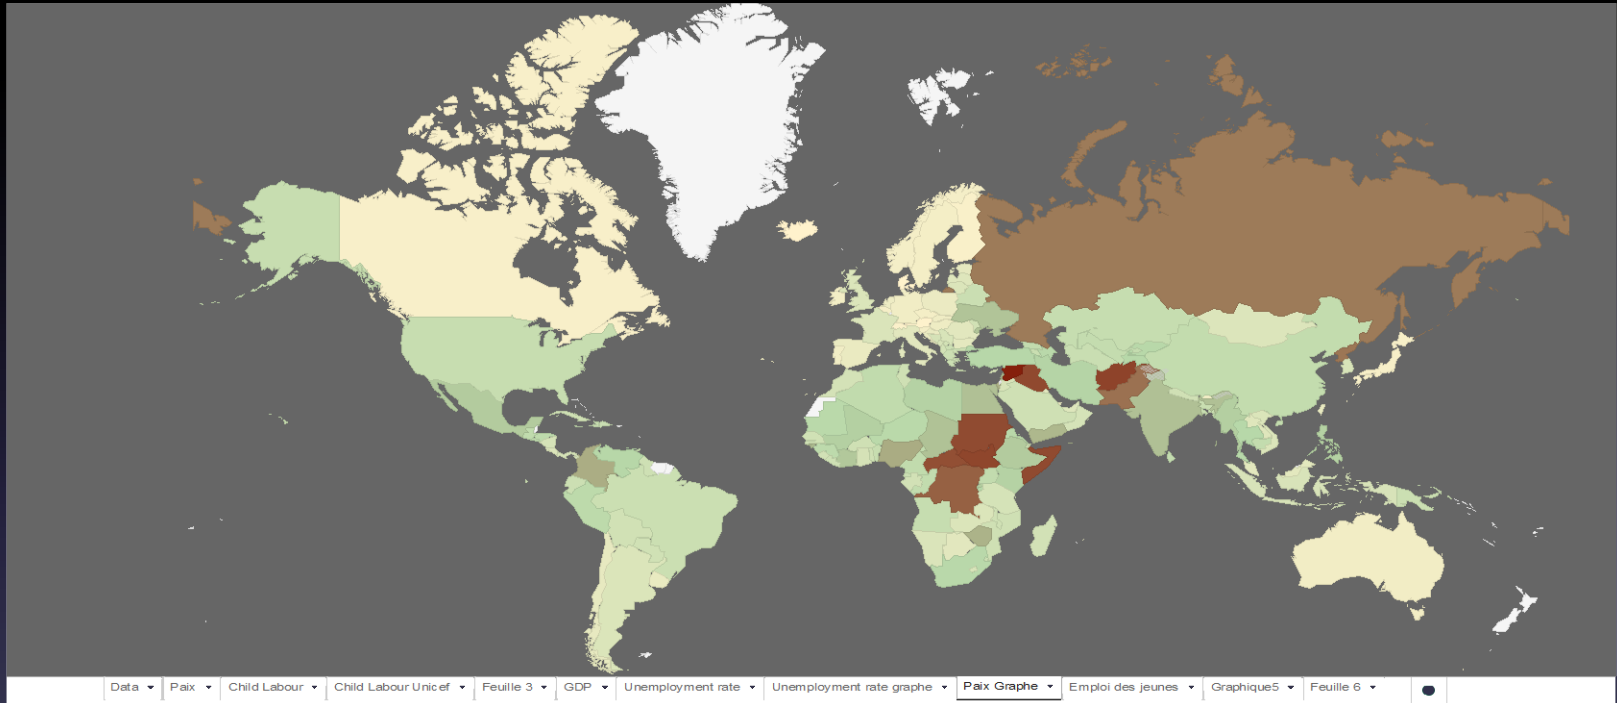

Introduction

- « there shall not be lasting peace without social justice »
- 1919
- 1944 Declaration of Philadelphia Labour is not a commodity
- Today

Looking at maps

- 1. Peace and security
- 2. Convergences
- 3. Divergences

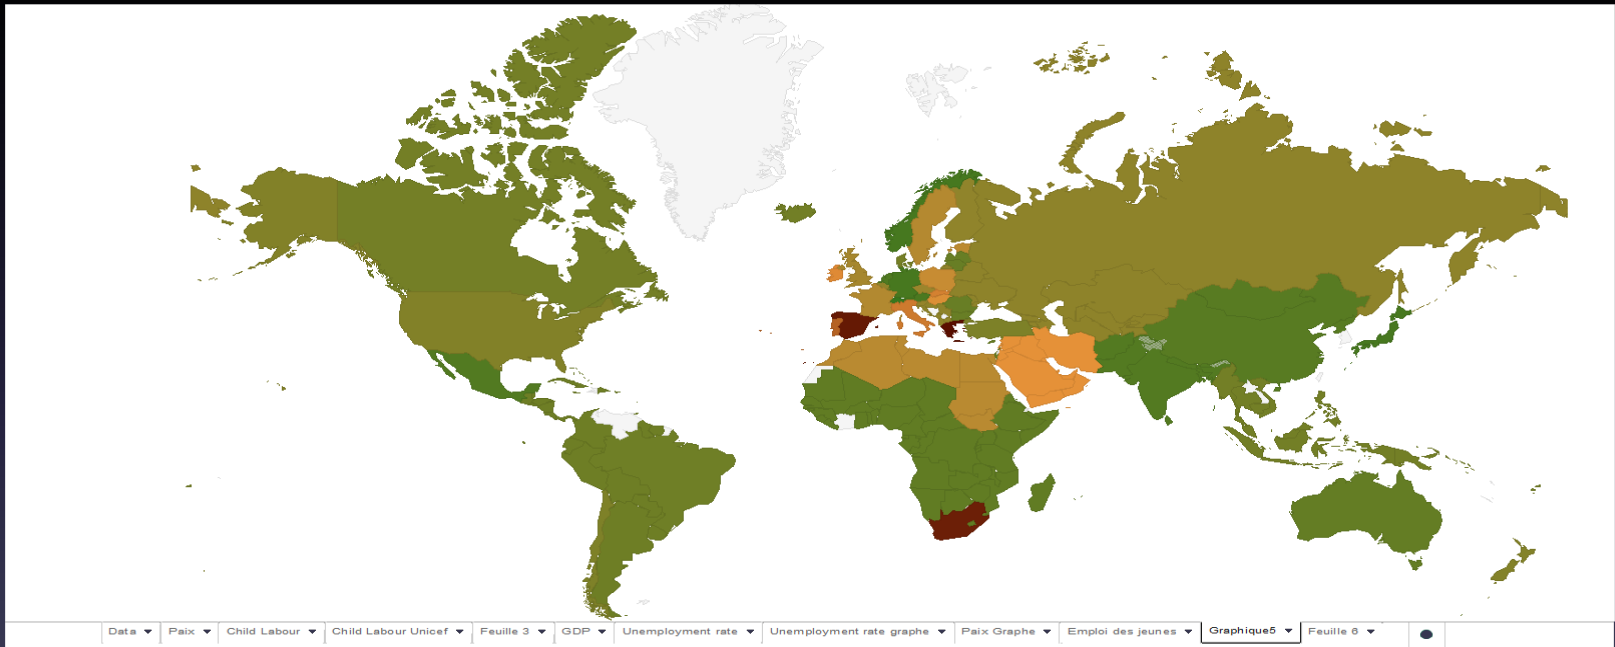

1. Peace and security

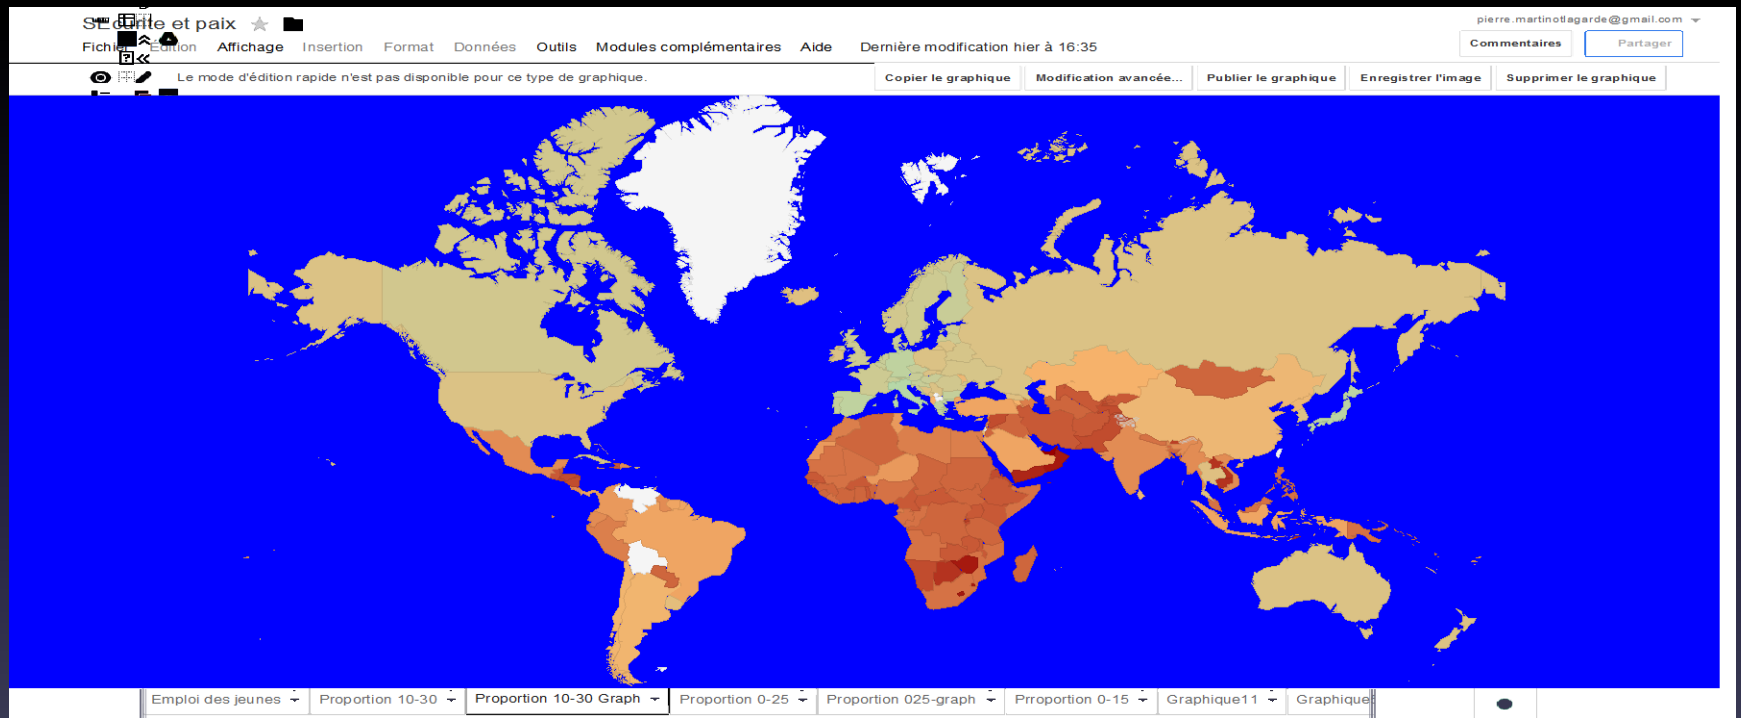

2. Some convergences

1. The youths
2. Child labour
3. Social security prevalence
4. GDP

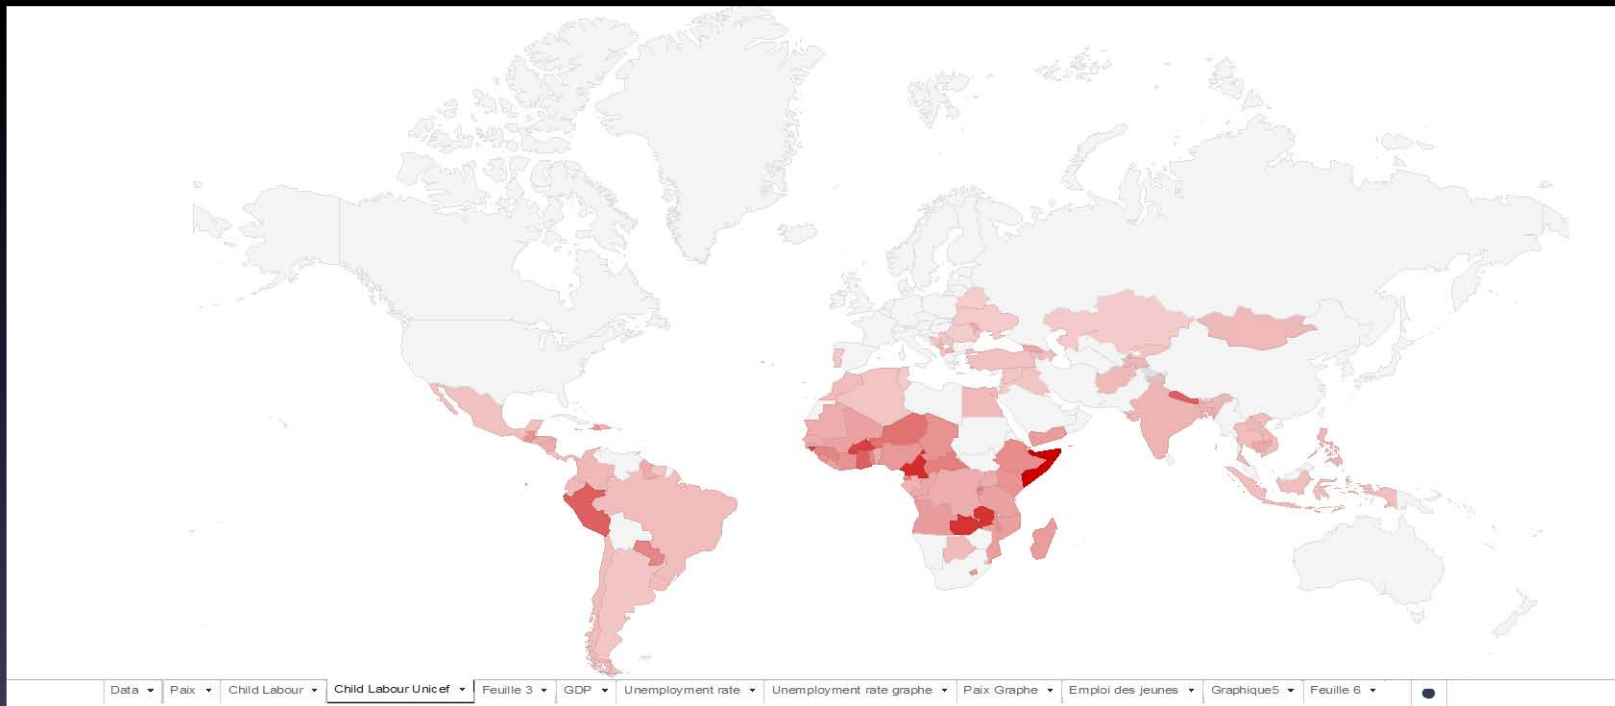

2.1. The youths - youth unemployment

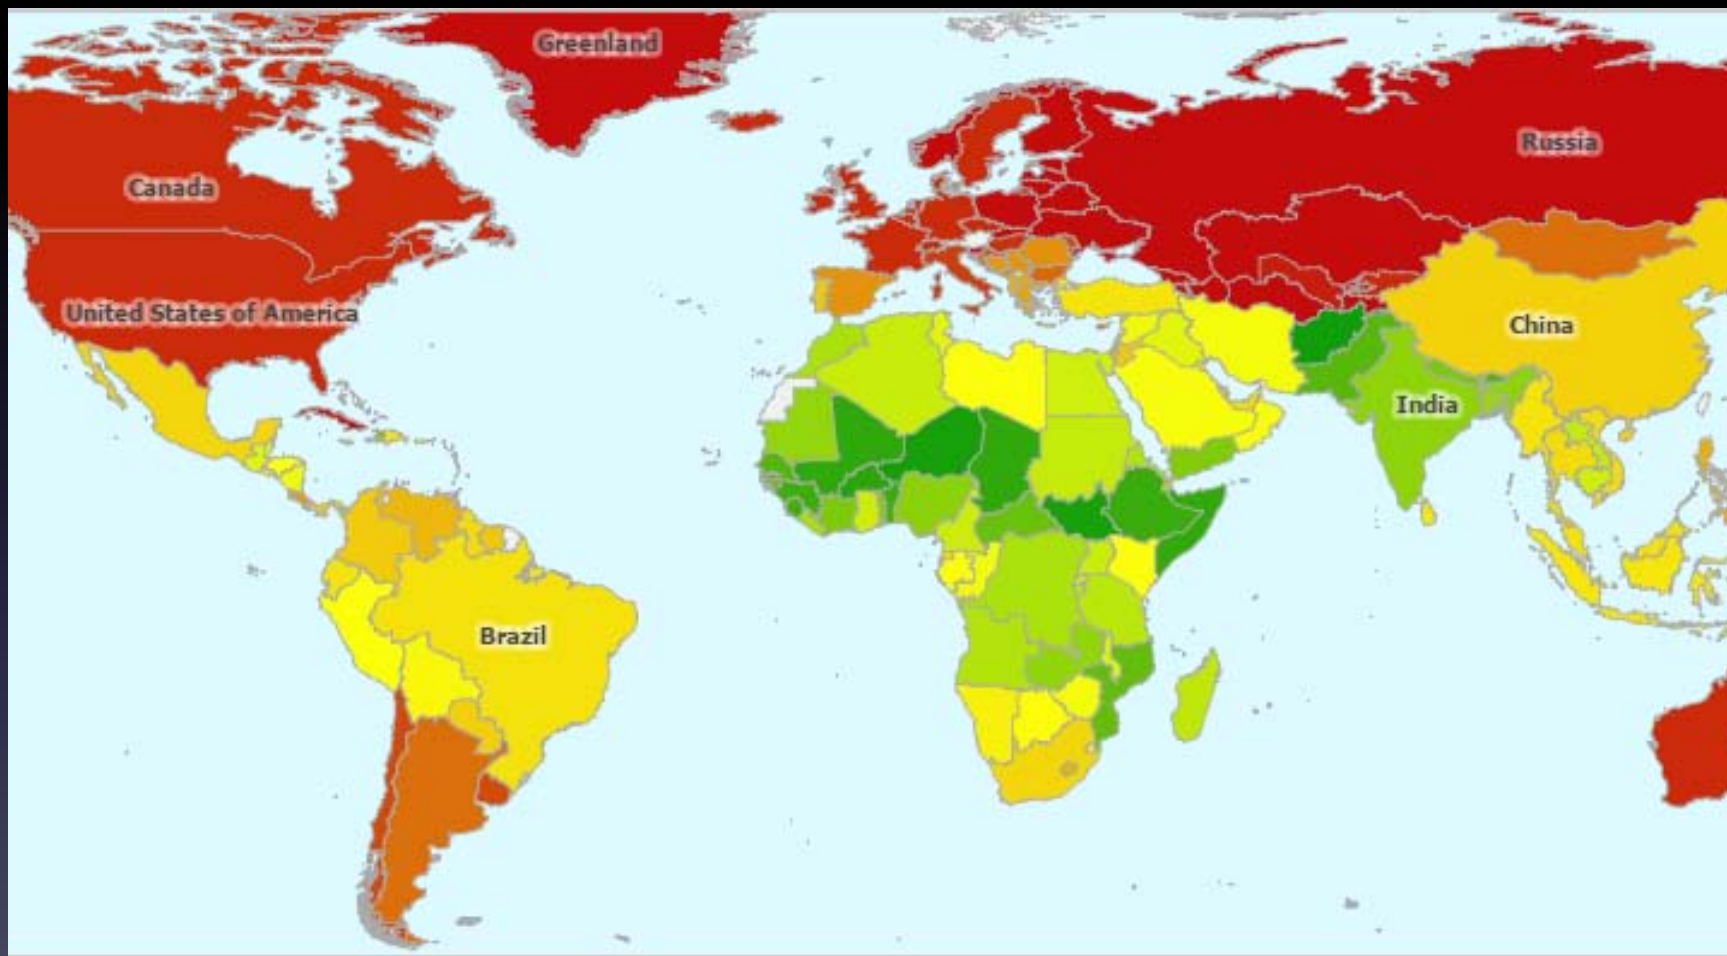

2.1 The youth – 0 -30 in the population

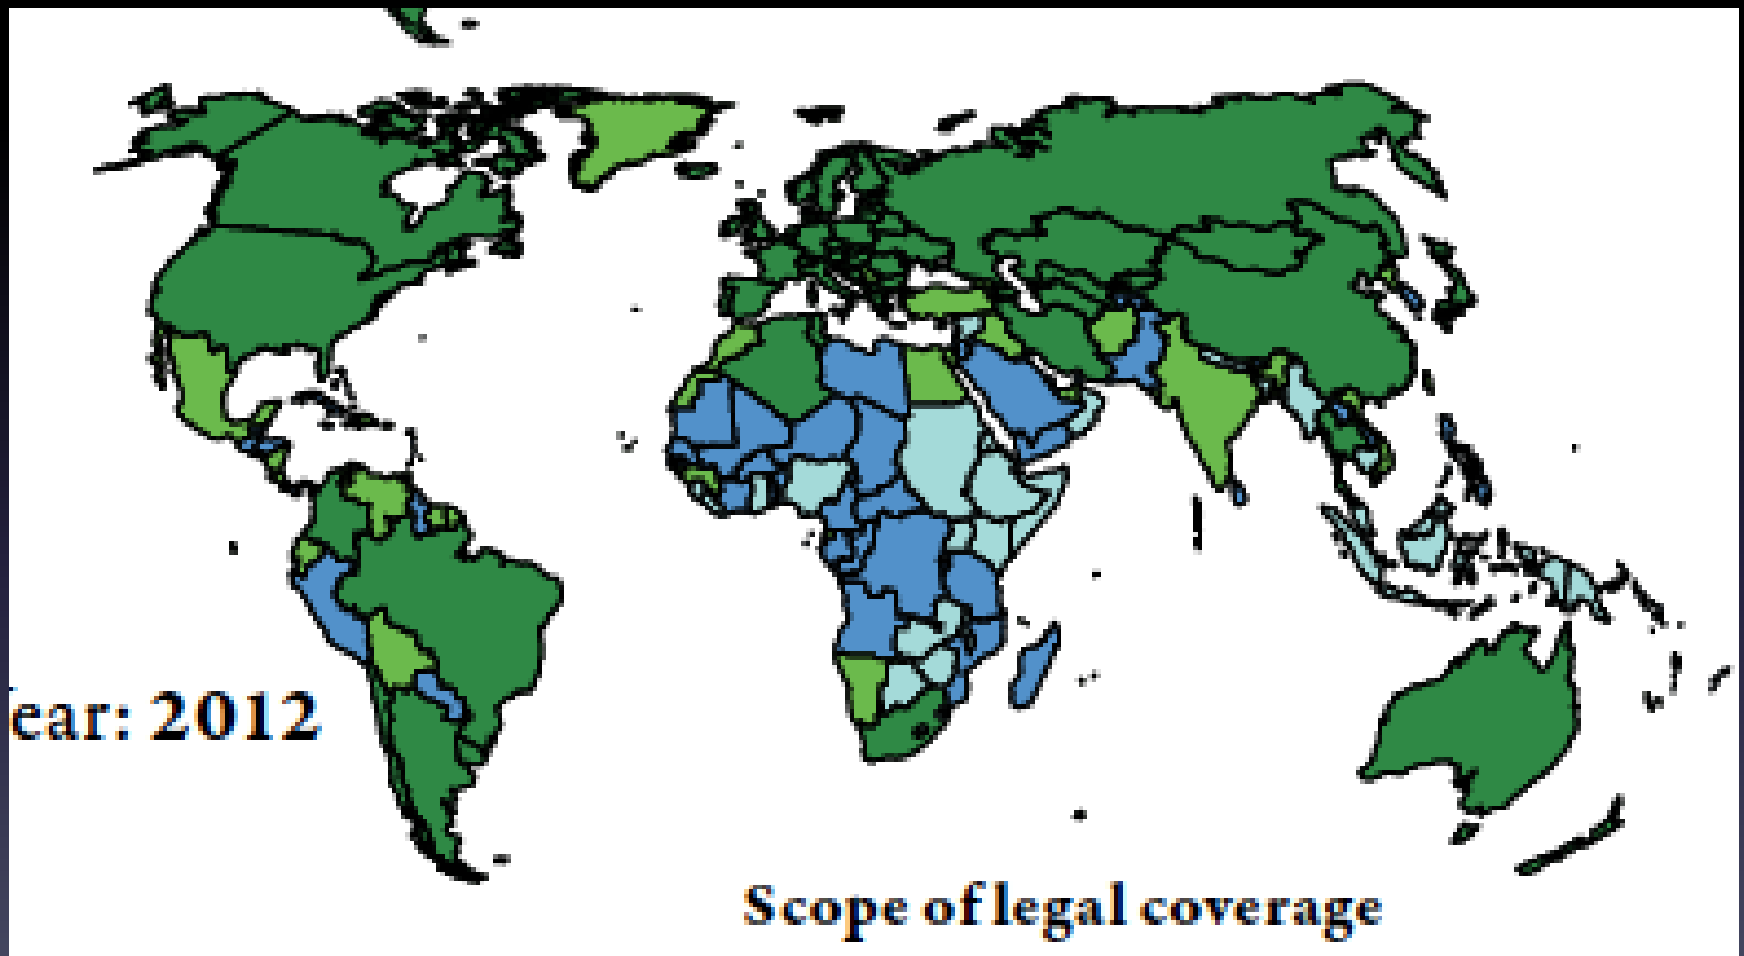

2.2 Child labour prevalence

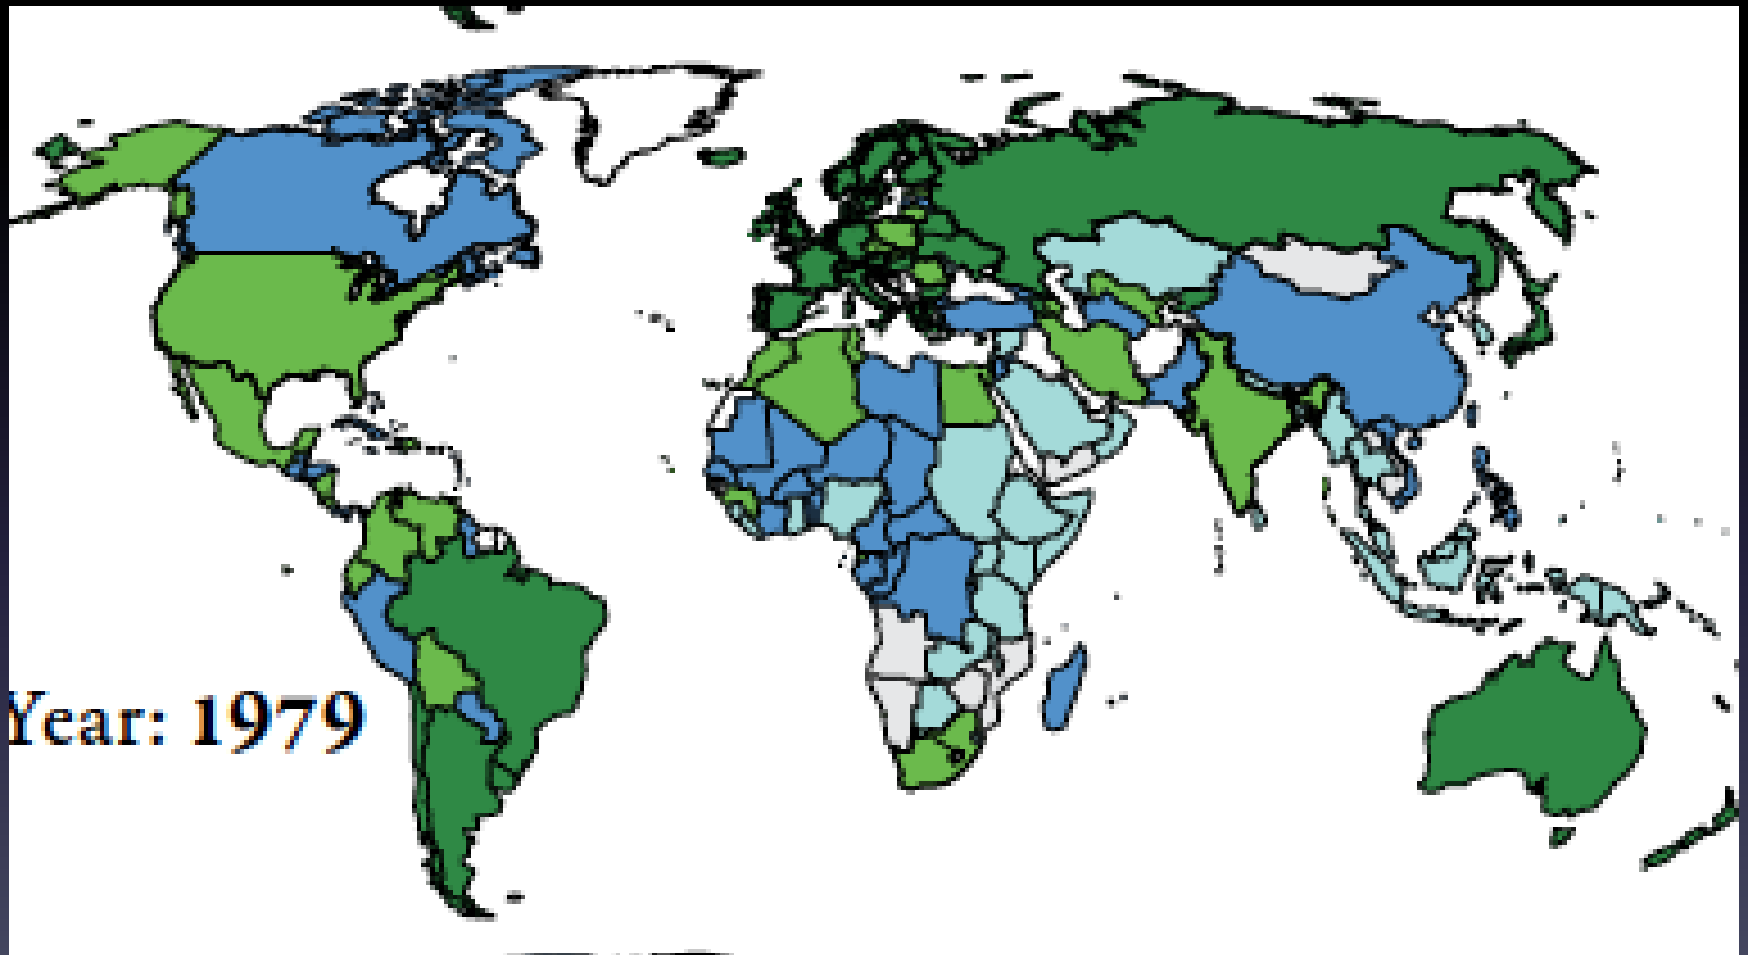

2.2b women literacy

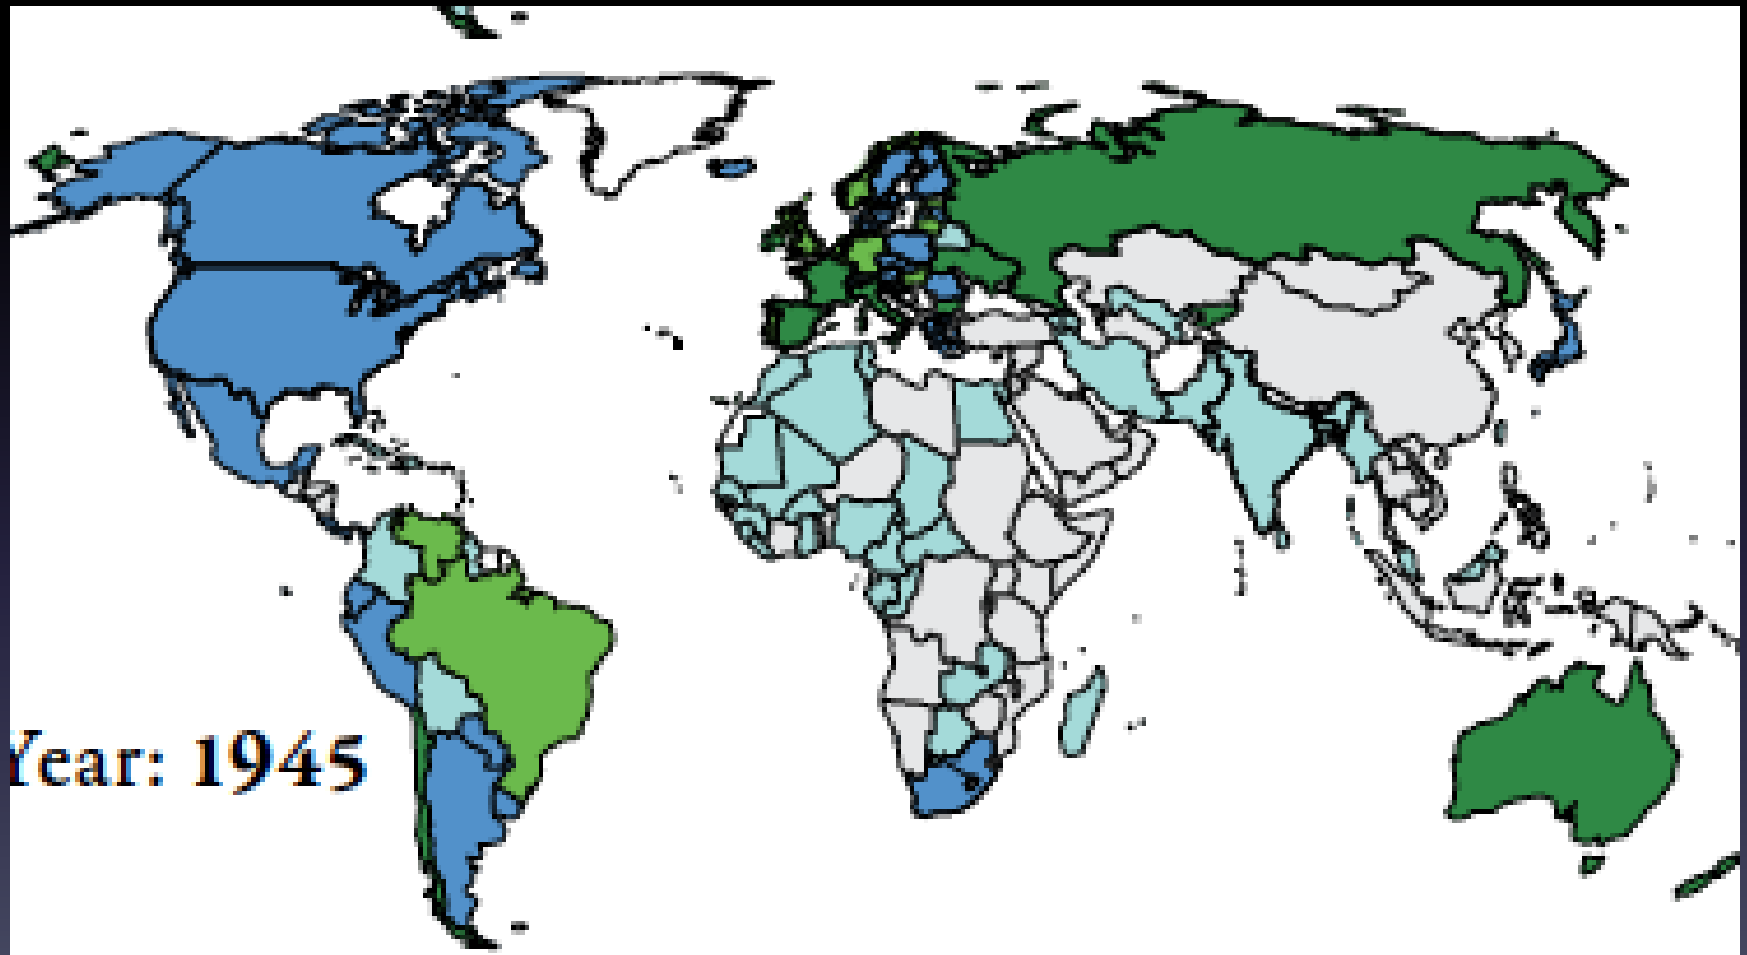

2.3 Social security 2012

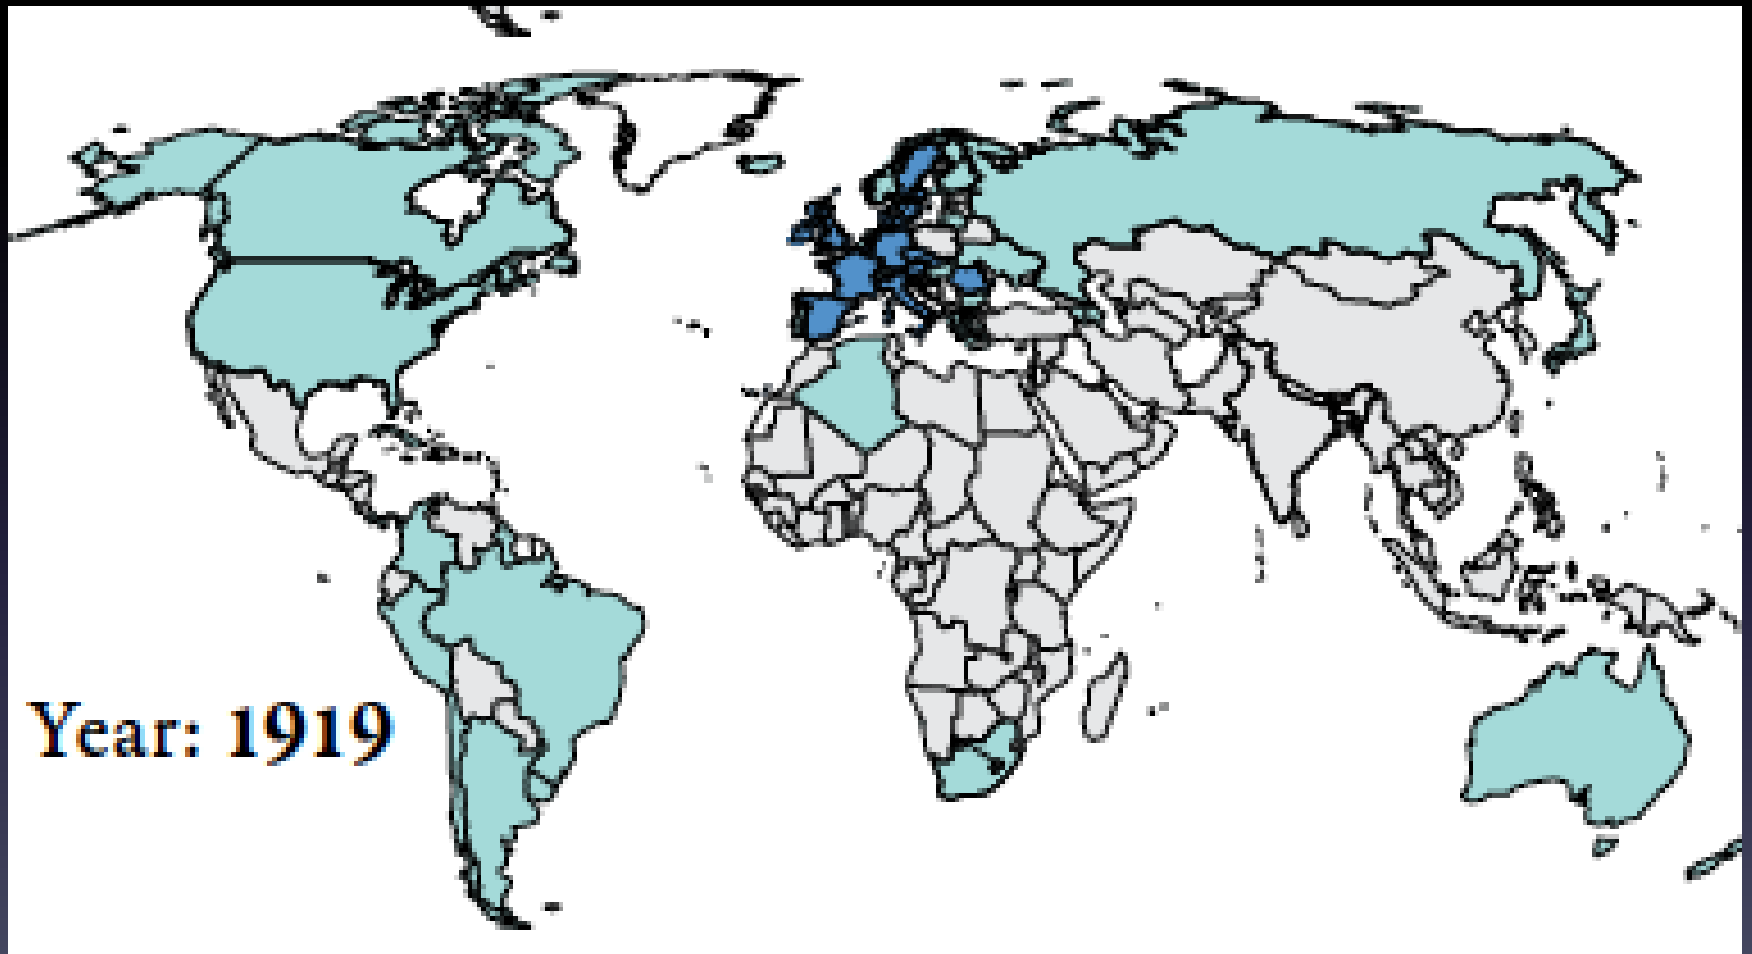

2.3b Social security 1979

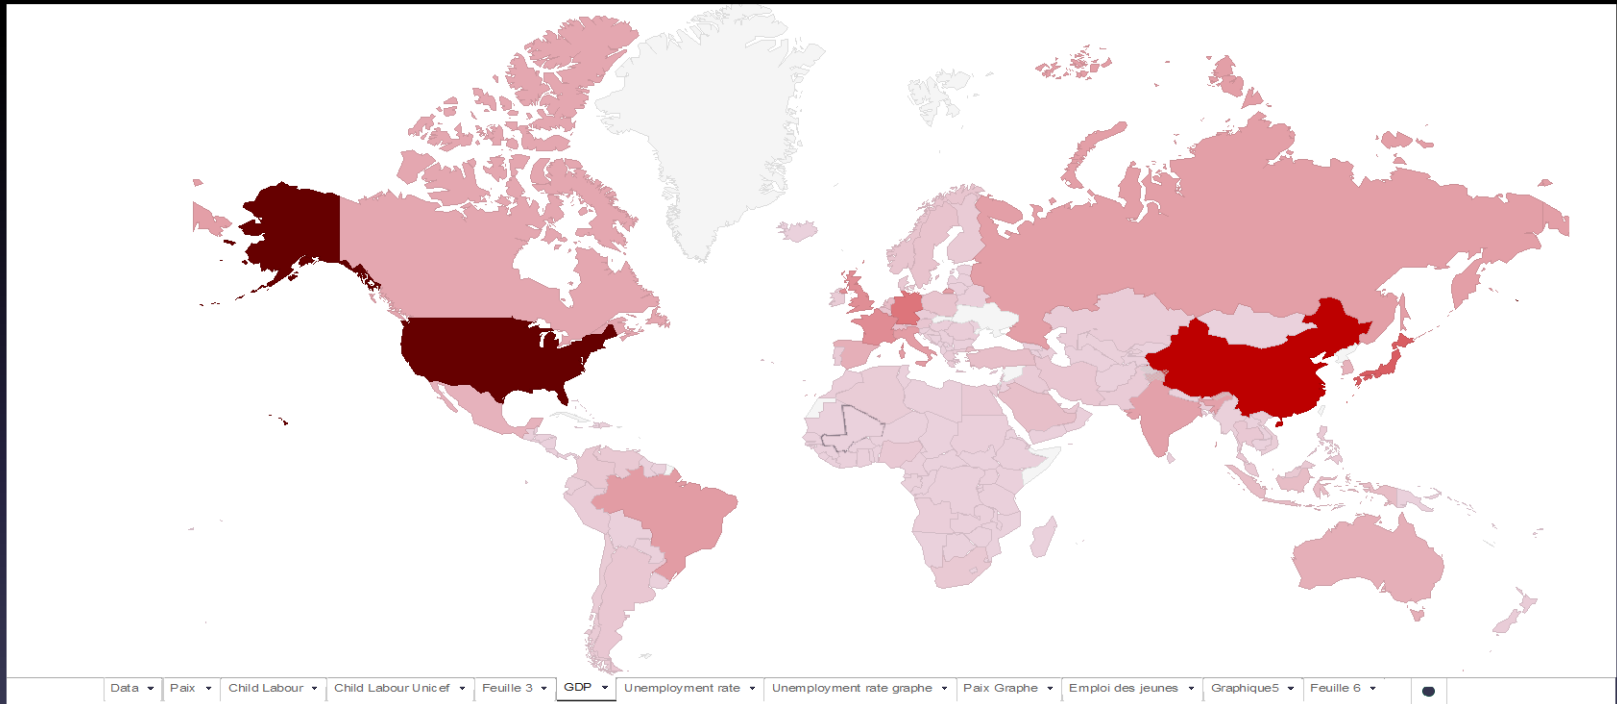

2.3c Social security 1945

2.3d Social security 1919

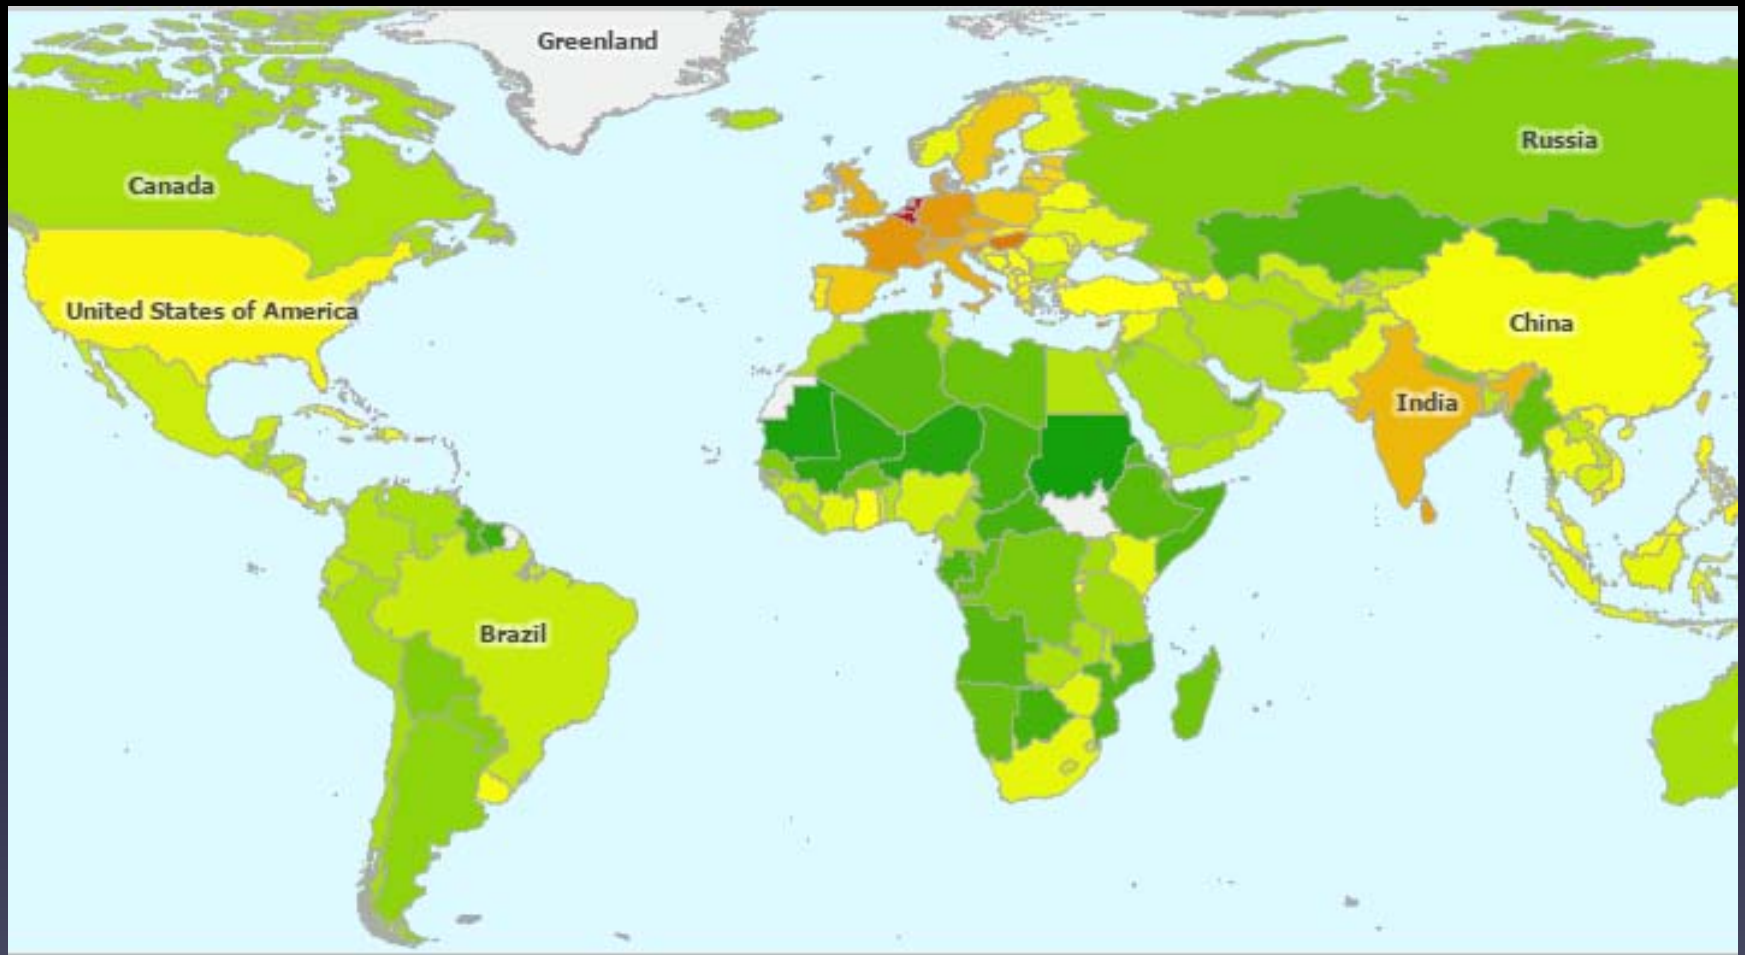

2.4 Gdp

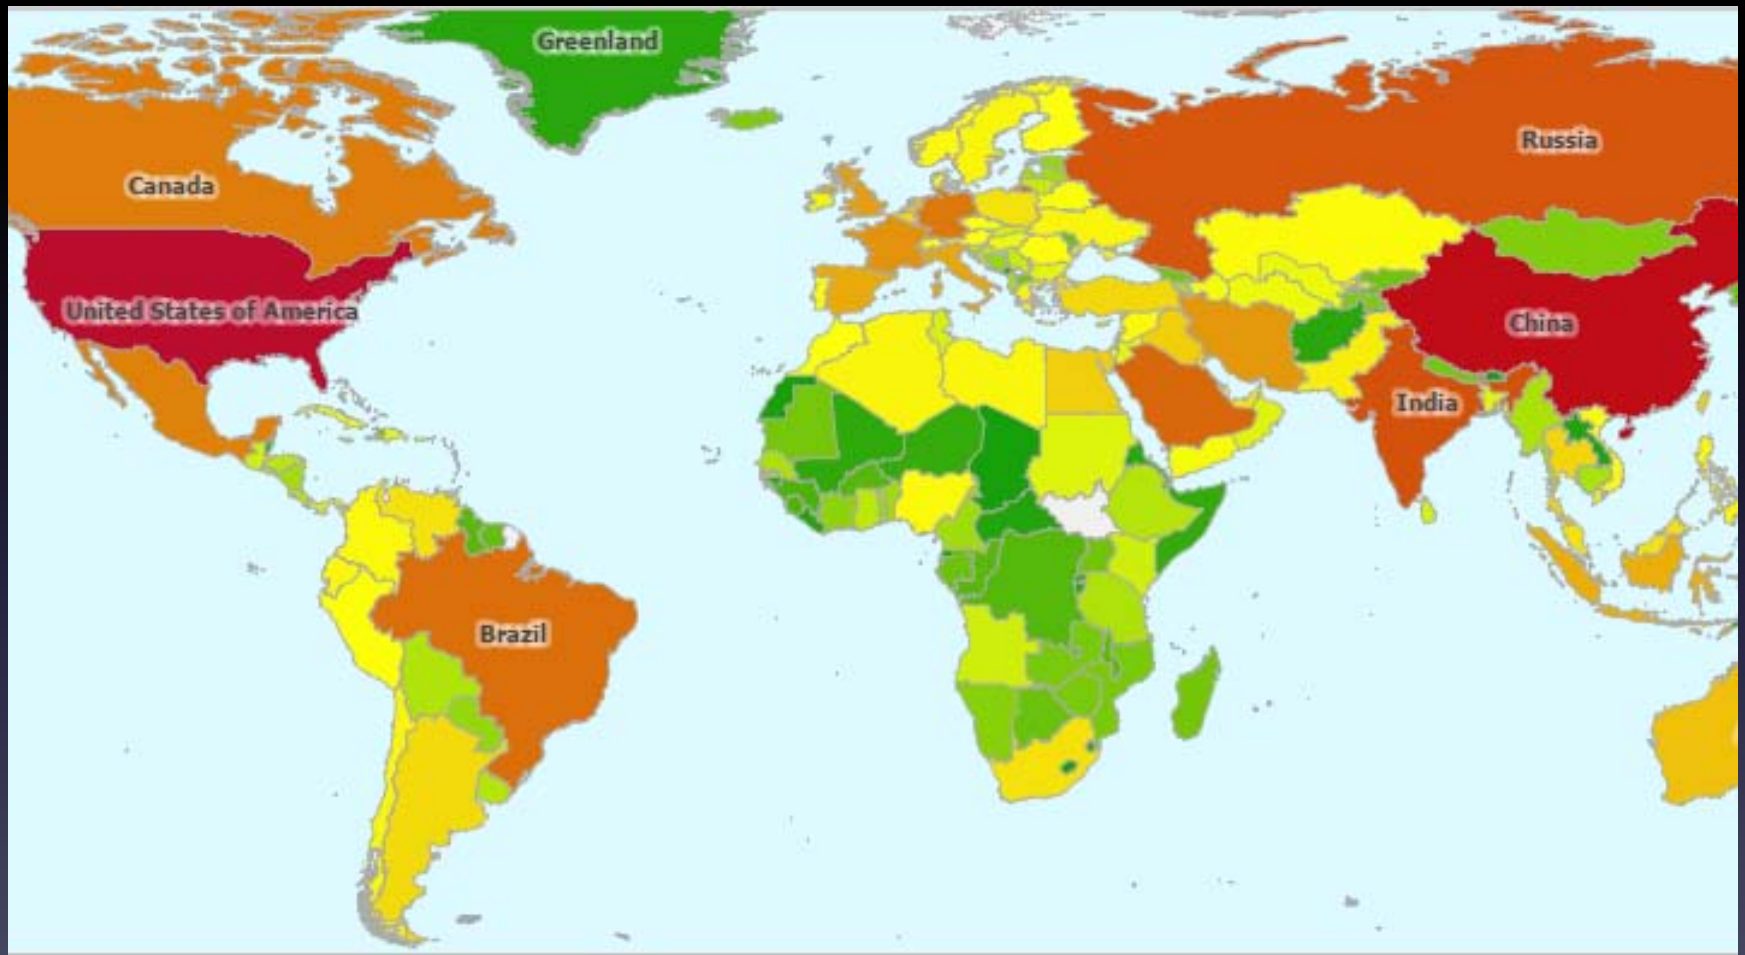

3. Some divergences

1. Road density
2. Carbon use
3. Inequalities

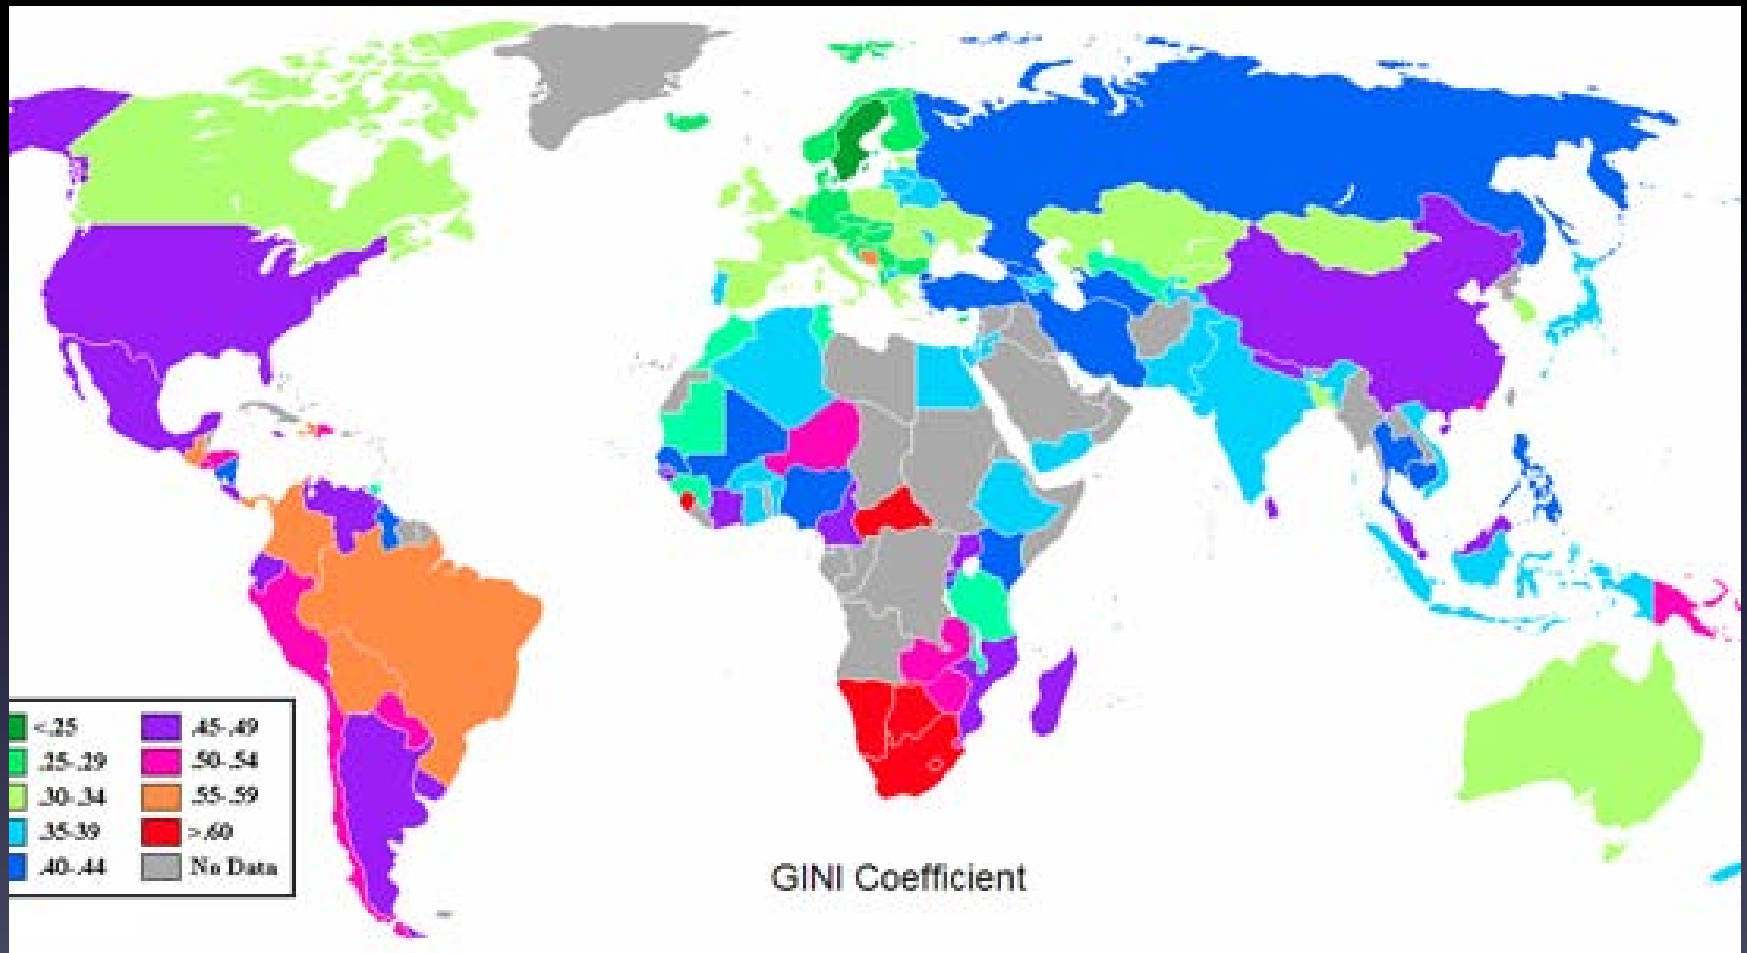

3.1 Road density

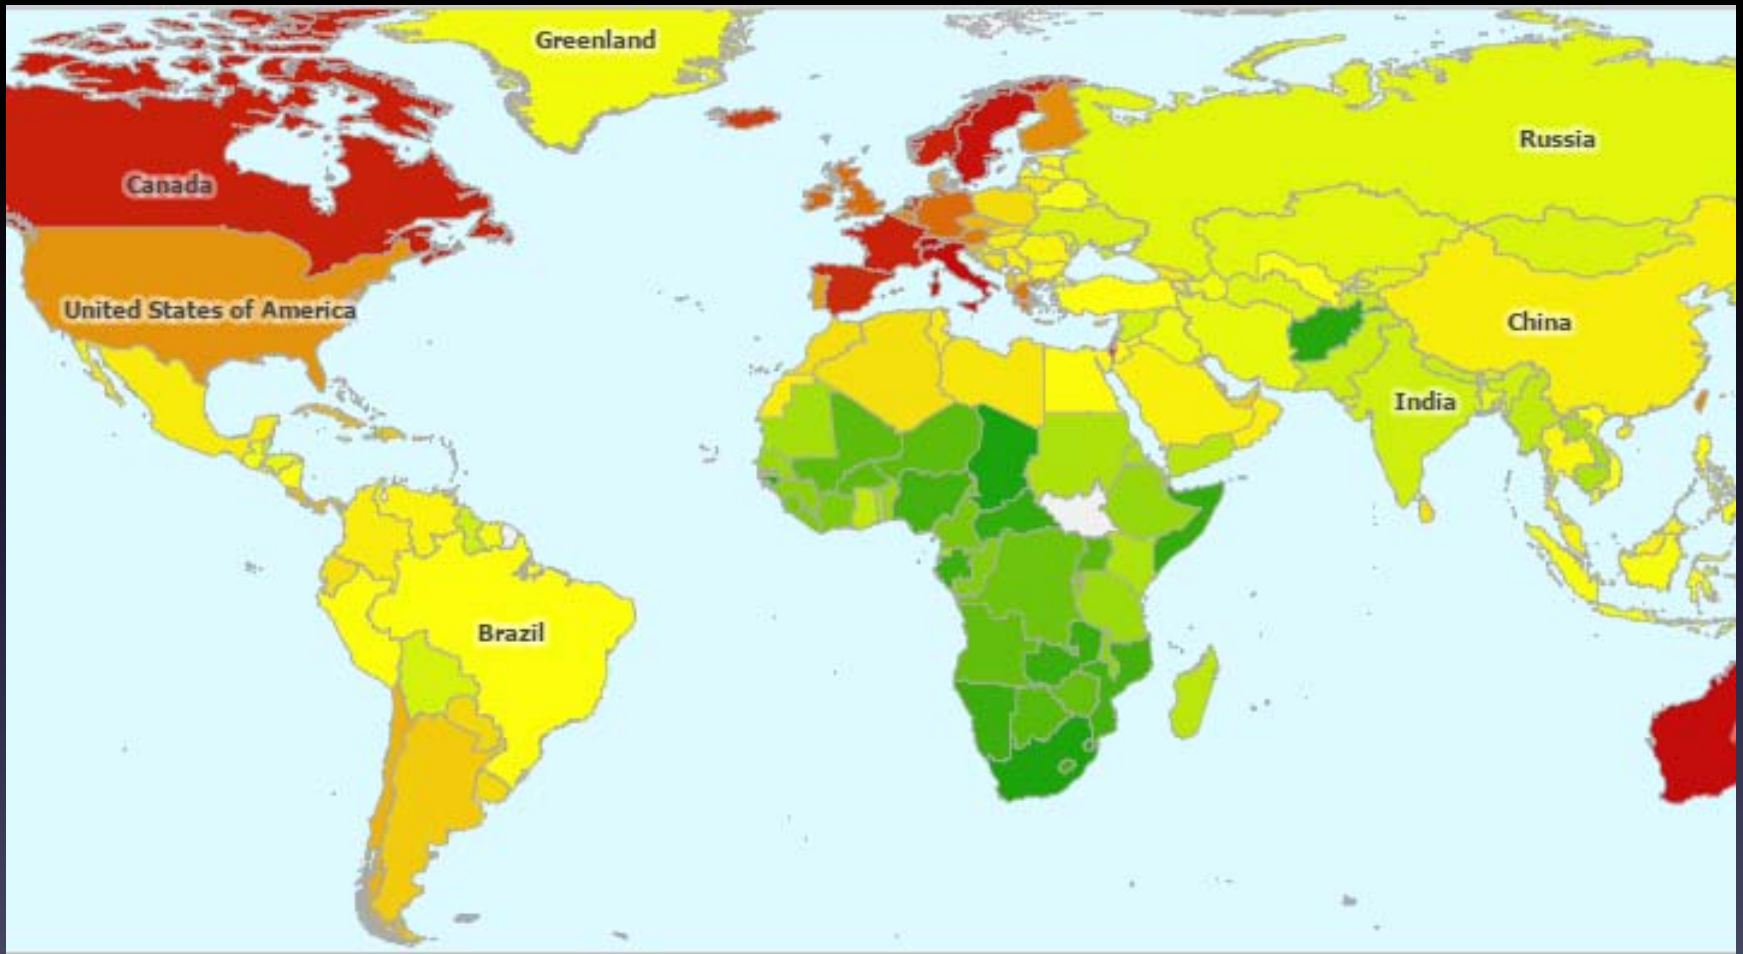

3.2 Oil consumption

3.3 Inequalities

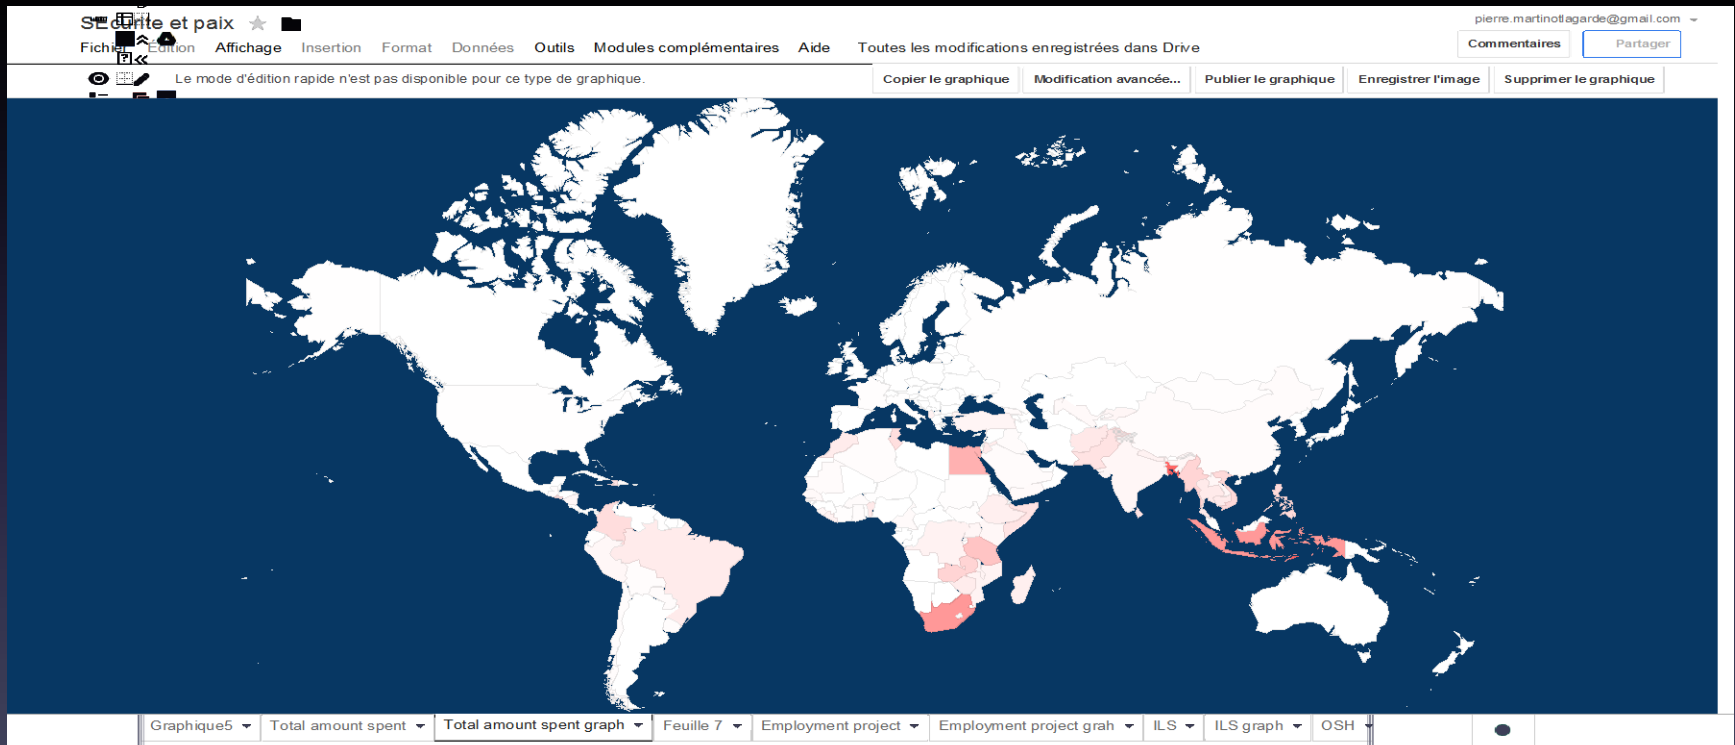

3.4 Life expectancy

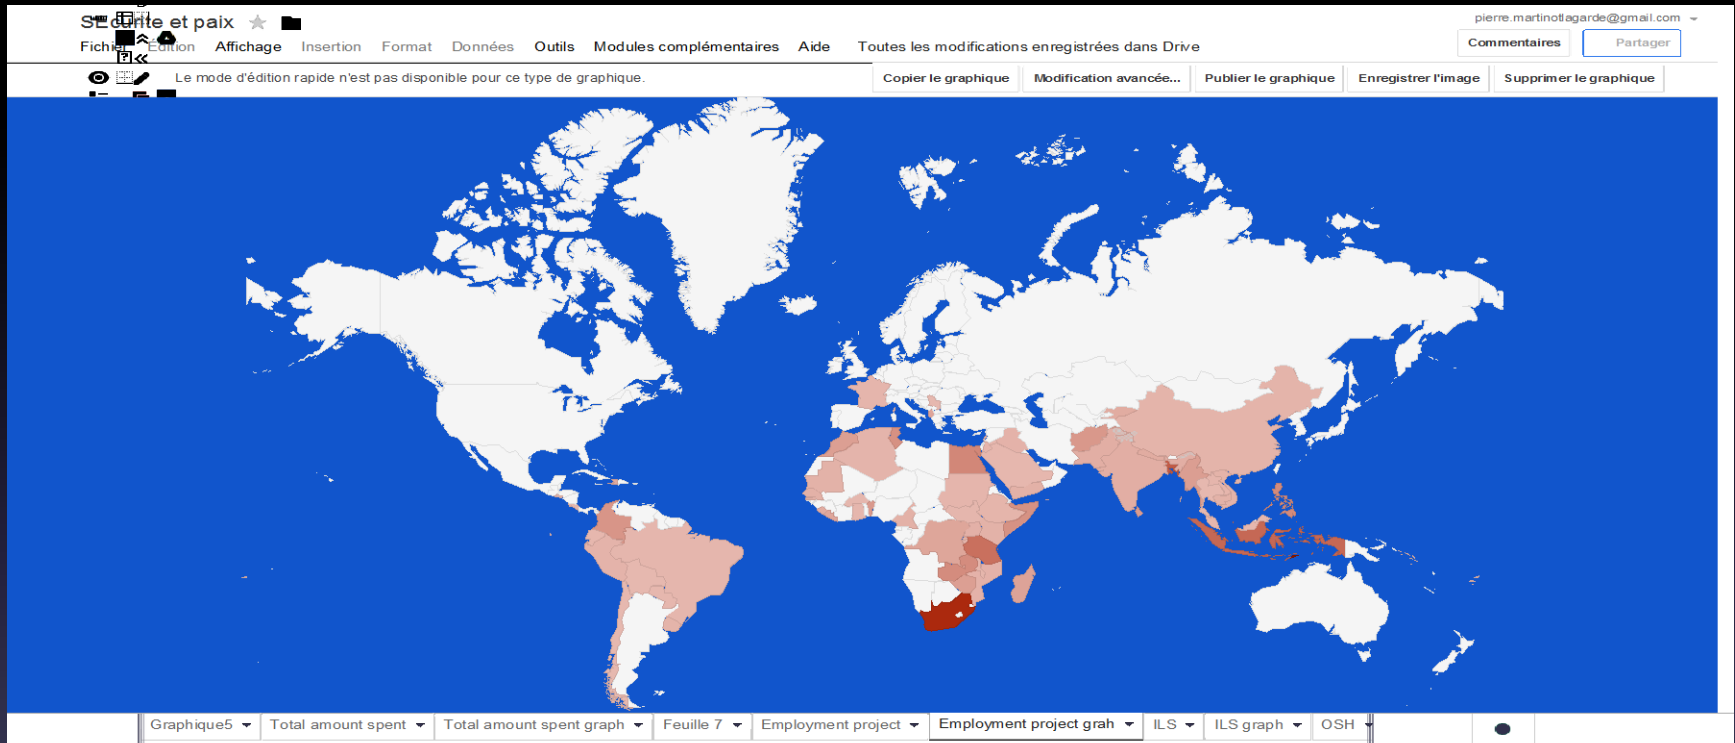

4. Some responses

1. ILO technical cooperation
2. The role of other organisations, and christian movements

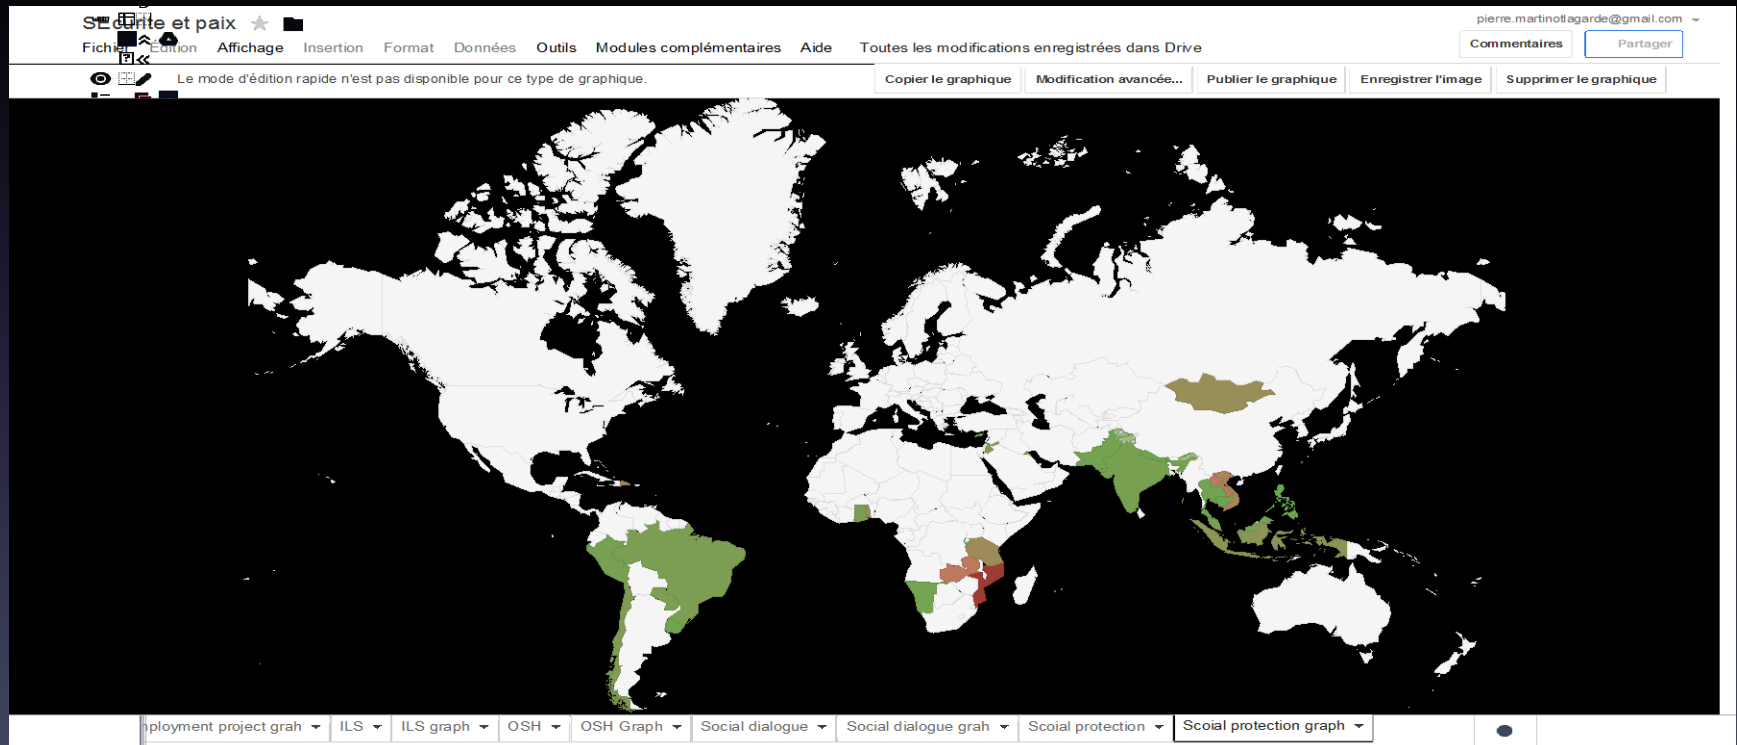

4. 1a ILO technical cooperation response

4.1b Employment response

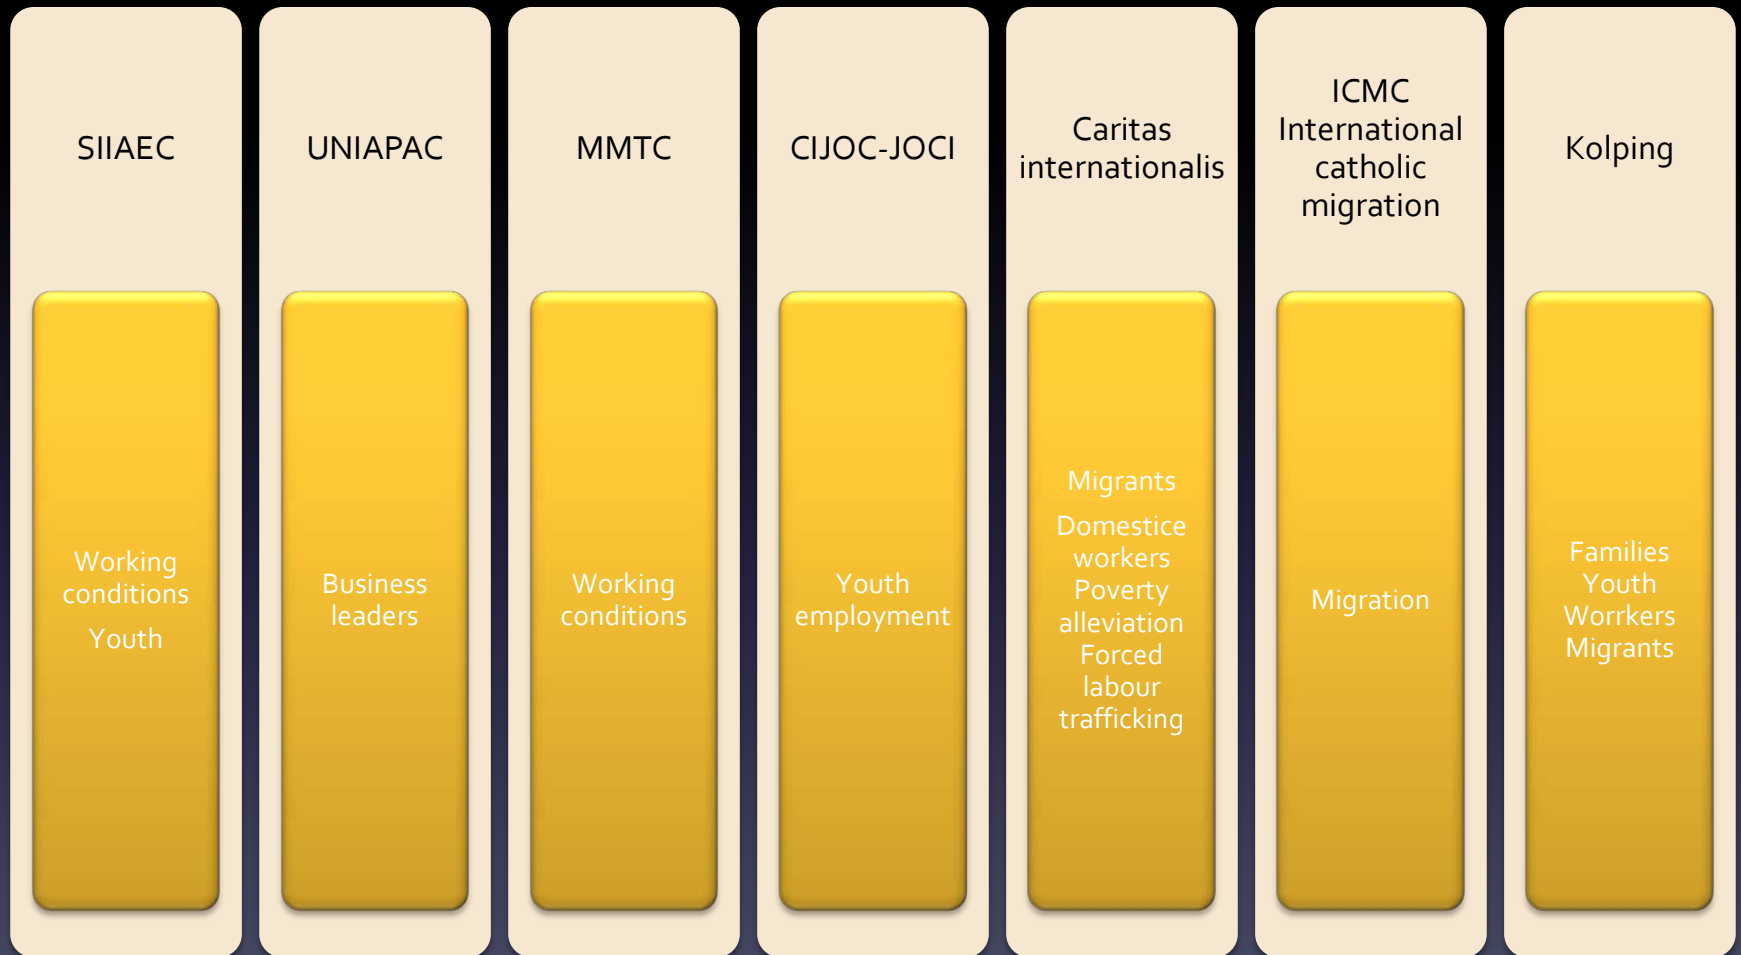

4.C ILO social security programs

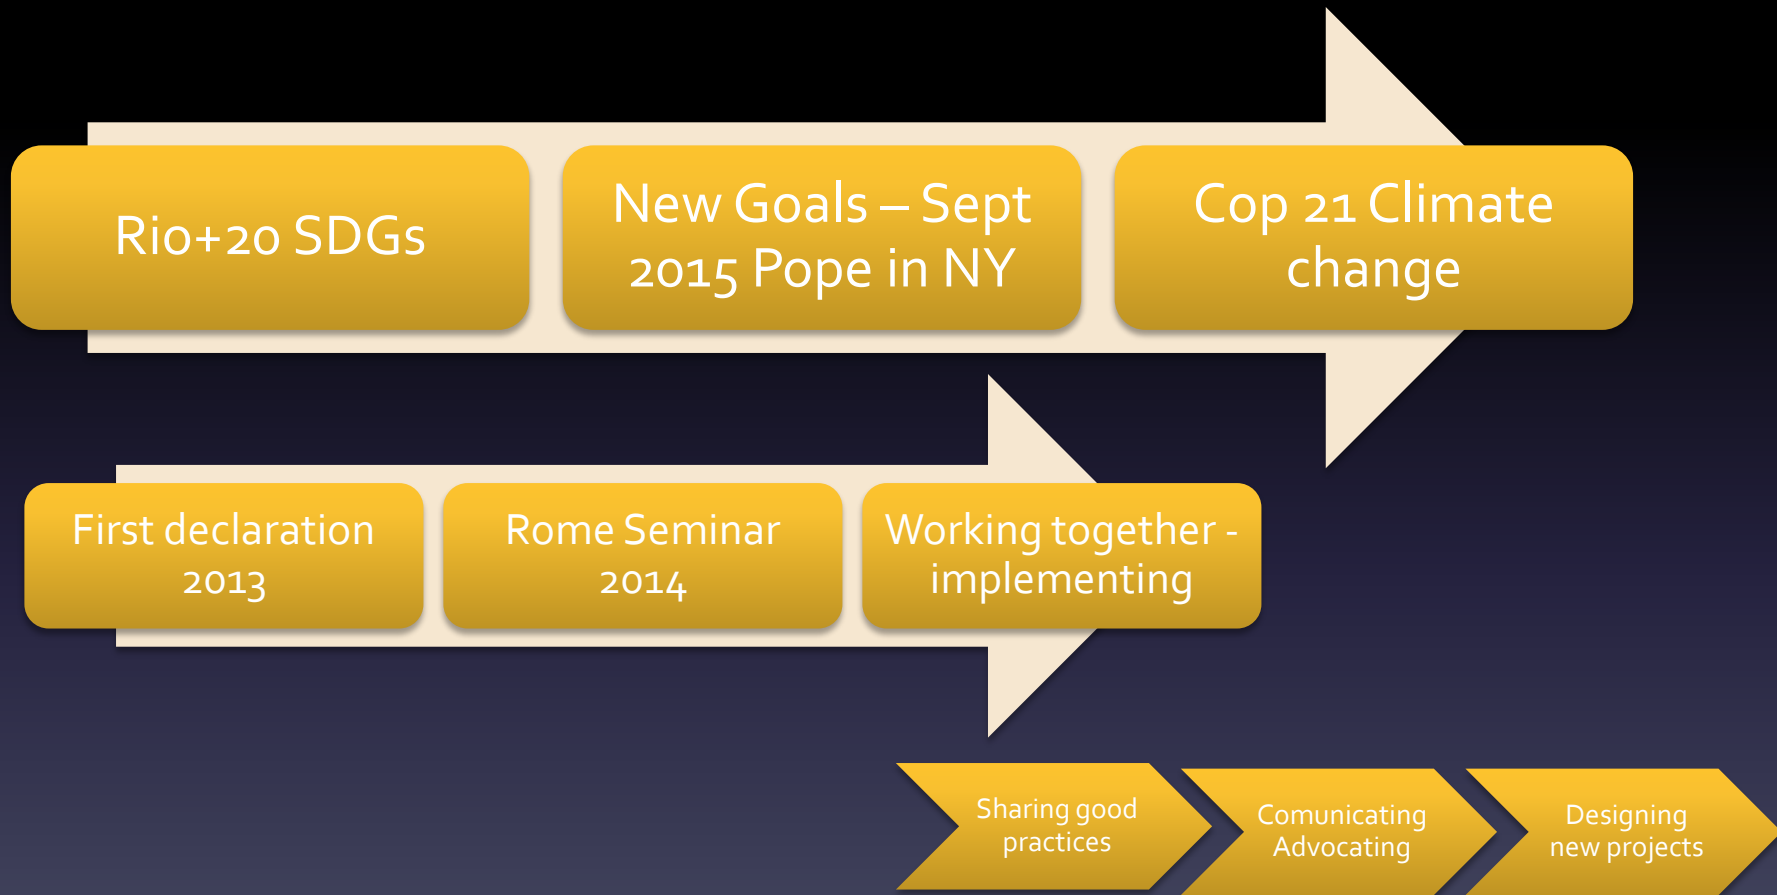

4.2 Catholic Ngos in the Post 2015

- 4.2. Working together
- 4.2. Implementation time
- 4.2 In an interreligious context

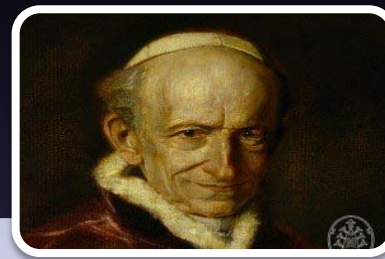

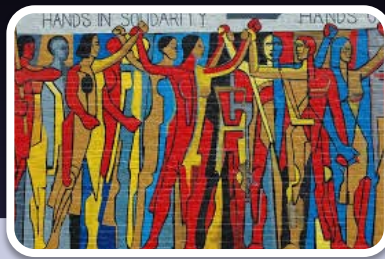

4.2 Working together

4.3 Implementation time

4.4 Sharing our value and our history

Dignity

Solidarity

Catholic social Doctrine

Christian movements